

What's hot, what's new, what's so now

Fashion

Whatever uncertainty hangs in the air, spring's sartorial choices are all about optimism, fluidity and softness. The message is loud and clear: we need something that excites us, and is also practical; to add a dash of 21st century fun, yet last the distance. Above all, we need clothes that make us look and feel good. The good news is - it's a season about the clothes, not which trends to master. The only real rule is to choose a look that suits you and your shape. SO'B
