

A woman with vibrant red, wavy hair is seated, smiling at the camera. She is wearing a black turtleneck top and a wide, textured silver bracelet on her left wrist. A small, light-colored pug dog is perched on her lap, looking directly at the camera. The background features a tall, ornate metal cabinet with multiple drawers and a glass display case on top. To the left, a lamp with a dark shade and a decorative base is visible on a table. The overall lighting is warm and soft.
